Walker Says U.S. Main Battleground

By MIKE QUINN ground identified on this stage Edwin A. Walker told a U.S. as U.S. Day—the symbol of our Day rally at Dallas Municipal Au-sovereignty. Tomorrow ditorium Wednesday night that there will stand here a symbol to the main battleground in the the communist conspiracy and its world today is right here in Amer-ica, and it involves the United Walker also took out after the States vs. the United Nations. Central Intelligence Agency, Speaking to a crowd of over pointing out that it now has 100,-1,000, Walker took pot shots at 000 employes. He predicted that the United Nations Day celebra- soon the CIA will move its action scheduled in Dallas Thurs- tions from foreign countries into day at which UN Ambassador the individual states. Adial Stevenson will speak. The former Army major gen-Walker said the question has eral also came out in favor of

are for-the United States or the time or another attacked President John Kennedy, former Presidents United Nations. He took issue with Gov. John Dwight Eisenhower, Franklin Connally for issuing a proclama-Roosevelt and Harry Truman, tion for both U.S. Day and UN and former Vice-President Richard Nixon as well as the State Day.

boiled down to which side you keeping the poll tax and at one

"I defy any man who can write Department. a proclamation to you on this day Walker spoke for more than an and to the United Nations the hour, blasting U.S. foreign policy. next day," Walker told the cheer- Walter Reed, who served as g, flag-waving crowd. master of ceremonies, read mes-Walker was one of Connally's sages from Congressman Bruce ing, flag-waving crowd. opponents in last year's guber-Alger, Sen. Strom Thurmond of natorial race in the Democratic South Carolina, Dan Smoot and Robert Morris. primary. Of Stevenson's visit here Thurs- When Reed read a list of 12 day. Walker stressed that the bat- area mayors who were invited tle would be waged from the and asked them to stand, none same stage since Stevenson will was present. They were booed. speak in the same auditorium Walker read a list of organization sponsoring UN Day and the

Thursday night. "Tonight we stand on a battle- crowd booed them also.